Financial Ombudsman Service

The Financial Ombudsman is an independent organisation with powers to resolve complaints about financial services when issues have not been resolved between an individual and their financier. The service is open to members of the public and very small businesses, charities, clubs, and trusts.

You can check if they are able to deal with your complaint by telephoning 0300 123 9 123 or 0800 023 4567 Monday to Friday – 8am to 8pm, Saturday – 9am to 1pm or you can visit their website at www.financial-ombudsman.org.uk or you can write to Financial Ombudsman Service, Exchange Tower, London, E14 9SR or email: complaint.info@financial-ombudsman.org.uk

The Financial Ombudsman will not normally accept a complaint for investigation unless 56 days have passed since you first raised your complaint with us or if you have been notified of our final decision and you remain dissatisfied. This is to allow us the opportunity to deal with your concerns.

You may make a complaint at any time within 6 months of our final decision about your complaint. If you do not refer your complaint to the Financial Ombudsman within that 6 month period then your complaint may not be accepted by the Ombudsman.

You may also lose your right to refer a complaint to the Financial Ombudsman if more than six years have passed since the event(s) about which you want to complain, or if more than three years have passed since you should have realised that you had a possible that you had a possible complaint.

It is important that you act promptly if you think you are entitled to refer a complaint to the financial ombudsman.
